MODULE TITLE	INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE
MODULE CODE	LA4938 (L7)	CREDIT VALUE	20 UK CREDITS / 10 ECTS
SCHOOL	SCHOOL OF LAW

MODULE AIMS

This module aims to give students an understanding of corporate governance issues, focusing initially upon the system in place within the United Kingdom and then exploring various governance systems across the world. The module will address the following: distribution of power with companies, methods of regulating governance, auditors and internal control, the meaning and importance of good governance, the interaction of corporate social responsibility and of human rights issues to a corporation and its governance. It aims to develop students understanding of corporate governance across various jurisdictions and also provide an analysis of the wider moral and policy considerations underpinning today's corporate governance laws.

MODULE CONTENT

Indicative syllabus content:

1. This module will focus initially on the system of corporate governance found in the United Kingdom because of the pre-eminence of the development of that system and its influence globally.
2. The changing approach to international corporate governance issues and the rules and principles that regulate corporate behaviour will be examined.
3. Among the key corporate governance issues examined are:
  - the development of various governance codes,
  - directors and their boards,
  - director's remuneration,
  - regulatory responses to corporate scandals,
  - professional 'gatekeepers',
  - corporate governance failure,
  - current debates on tightening corporate governance, and the issue of convergence.

TEACHING METHODS

This module is organised into 2-hour weekly seminars. During each seminar, the tutor will deliver a short presentation and facilitate a discussion of critical issues within the said topic led by the students, either working in groups or individually. Some topics may be divided between two Seminars. Students will be expected to have independently researched the issues for discussion in each seminar and to come to seminars prepared to respond and participate in an open and active critical discussion.
