

Co-funded by the European Union

Jean Monnet Module Working Paper Series,
School of Law, University of Central Lancashire, Cyprus
(JMMWP, School of Law, UCLan Cyprus)

“The Law of Financial and Economic Governance in the EU” (FEcoGov)”

Series Editor: Dr. Stéphanie Lahlé Shaelou, Associate Professor, School of Law, UCLan Cyprus and Jean Monnet Module Leader and Academic Coordinator (2014-17)

ISSN 2421-8340 (online)

Available at <http://www.uclancyprus.ac.cy/en/research/jean-monnet-module/publications/>

The Jean Monnet Module Working Paper ('JMMWP') Series of the School of Law at UCLan Cyprus aims at promoting research by early career researchers in the field of the Law of Financial and Economic Governance (FEcoGov) in a global, European and interdisciplinary setting. It is edited by Dr. Stéphanie Laulhé Shaelou, Associate Professor, School of Law, UCLan Cyprus and Jean Monnet Module Leader and Academic Coordinator, with the generous support of the European Commission and UCLan Cyprus.

The JMMWP Series forms part of the deliverables of the Jean Monnet Module FEcoGov, available on the open access education platform <http://www.uclancyprus.ac.cy/en/research/jean-monnet-module/publications/>. It is an electronic monographic series duly recorded with its own ISSN and each Working Paper in the Series is identified with its own individual ISBN.

Contributions of between 10,000 and 15,000 words by young academics and/or early career researchers are welcome, in any field related to the Euro crisis and/or the global/European financial crisis of 2008 onwards as well as their implications, both from the perspective of public and private law (at the international, regional and/or domestic level), but also beyond the legal realm of the crisis into policy-making, politics, economics, European studies, etc. Proposals should be submitted to slaulhe-shaelou@uclan.ac.uk. Please allow a deadline of two weeks for feedback on the proposal.

May 2016

