LLM Financial and Corporate Law

The School of Law of UCLan Cyprus is proud to offer the newly designed LLM Financial and Corporate Law. Within finance and the corporate industry, law is a fast-changing and increasingly complex area. This postgraduate programme will allow students to specialise in a range of exciting subjects within the area of Financial and Corporate Law of use for their future professional career in law, business, or in financial and corporate fields, both nationally and internationally.

Students will gain and develop analytical and reflective skills and expertise in Financial and Corporate Law and benefit from a distinct learning experience, which will enable them to strengthen their academic ability and enhance their performance in employment, as well as further develop their career opportunities. This programme will provide the successful candidate with an internationally recognised postgraduate academic qualification in Financial and Corporate Law and a number of professional accreditation and certification opportunities with local and international specialist bodies or organisations.

The LLM Financial and Corporate Law is available to students from both a legal and non-legal background. Classes are taught during the late afternoon and evening. Emphasis is placed on private research and study, assisted by the University's remarkable law resources and databases. Therefore, class contact time is limited; reflective of a desire to offer a world-class course of interest to talented, serious, and dedicated students, whilst providing the necessary flexibility for those juggling other professional and personal commitments.
